

Cultivating Men of Word and Deed

Alpha Chi Rho Fraternity

Founded in 1895 at Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut, Alpha Chi Rho Fraternity is based on the notion that a member is a gentlemen who pledges his paramount duty to live every day with Character, Honor, and Integrity. He achieves this through his actions, both verbal and non-verbal; more simply put, through word and deed.

MISSION STATEMENT

Alpha Chi Rho cultivates a lifelong brotherhood where men challenge and inspire each other, through Character, Honor, and Integrity, to improve themselves, their Fraternity, and society.

LANDMARKS / PRINCIPLES

1. Membership from among those who are prepared to realize in word and deed, the Brotherhood of all men.
2. The insistence on a high and clean moral standard.
3. The paramount duty of Brotherly love among members.
4. Judgement not by externals, but by intrinsic worth; no one is denied membership in Alpha Chi Rho because of race, creed, nationality, or sexual orientation.

FRATERNITY VALUES

Character: We are men who stand out in the crowd, bringing diverse backgrounds together to Be Men in the 21st century.

Honor: Men of the Fraternity strive to have a holistic life which reflects on the legacy of our Founders but also enhances the organization for future generations.

Integrity: Alpha Chi Rho's preserve their individualism by doing what is morally right and expecting that every man would do the same.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

Mentorship Opportunities: All undergraduates are connected to their local Chapters through the Big and Little Brother program and have access to a local and national mentors program that will connect them to people in their desired career field.

Leadership Development: The Fraternity offers year-round leadership modules covering a variety of topics regarding Chapter operations such as time management, fiscal responsibility, and networking.

IMPROVING SOCIETY

Our National Philanthropy program, Challenge the World, supports Habitat for Humanity, the JED Foundation, and the Gift of Life Marrow Registry. All members of the Fraternity are required to do at least 10 hours of service per year. All Chapters are required to raise $500 for a charitable organization each year. Resident Chapter members are also encouraged to provide service to local philanthropic organizations to benefit their respective local communities.

Each Chapter is connected with their local branch of Habitat for Humanity in order to help with build weekends, fundraisers, or at the Re-Store which sells refurbished furniture.

The JED Foundation provides resources to college students to help themselves and others when discussing and dealing with mental health, substance abuse, and suicide prevention.

Gift of Life Marrow Registry is a public bone marrow and blood stem cell registry headquartered in Boca Raton, Florida. Gift of Life facilitates transplants for children and adults suffering from life-threatening illnesses, including leukemia, lymphoma, other cancers and genetic diseases.
